

2nd AUTO Show Edition

The Detroit Gazette

TWO cents

JANUARY 27 1917

- 8 PAGES -

IN THIS EDITION - 1st Enstalment

Gazettes New Serial -

The Broken Bill

IN SEVEN INSTALMENTS

BY ROBERT R. STEVENS
ILLUSTRATED BY N. NORMAN

The Serial of The Hour

ONE OF THE
- 7 -

The New Serial) EDITOR.

The new serial story which starts in this issue will prove to be the best. It is written by Robert R. Stevens and illustrated by Nat Norman, from what you have heard of these two we know you will be pleased the story starts on page two of this edition. It concerns the adventures of a young man, but we will not tell you the story here. Mr. Stevens will do that in full.

See Page Two. editor

- Fisher Art Gallery -

The art gallery at 2477 Fisher Ave. has at least been started many fine pictures have been contributed the gallery will have a grand opening sometime in February.

See the Auto's Page 4

Auto
Show Edition

The Detroit Gazette
SATURDAY JANUARY 27 -
- page 2 -

2¢
A Copy
20¢ a Month
$1.00 6 Months

The Broken Bill

BY ROBERT R. STEVENS Author Of Fred Norman of Forestville
Illustrated By Nat Norman - GAZETTE Jan. 1917 -

The Broken Bill Adventures of -
- William Randel -
- CHARACTERS -

John Randel - Millionaire [X] Rudolph Michel a
William Randel, his nephew [famous crook and money
Mary Randolph, Williams sweetheart] finder
Joe Murphy, the gardener [Miss Johnathan a crook
Jack Dole, a crook] Norman Rockwell, Detective
James Watson The holder of the other half (mistrick)
- Jane, the maid Brown the Butler -

Installment No One - Mr Randels Decision.

 Mr. John Randel sat alone in his Mansion in the great metropolis he had no son nor daughter and his wife had died many years ago.
He was known to be of a somewhat queer nature and three or four times had caused continued on

PAGE 3

The Detroit Gazette

STORY

SAT. JAN 27 - PAGE 3 -

Two

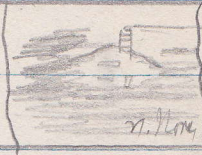

SECTION

THE BROKEN BILL

BY ROBERT R. STEVENS

continued From Page 2 -

excitement on the part of his friends, and his nephew William Randel by mistreously disappearing William was some what of a happy go lucky fellow fond of amusement and it was the third night this week that he had been out untill this late hour. The Cookoo clock in the corner gave out its longest call and the fier in the grate was nearly out. In came Mr William smelling of liquor and staggering a bit he looked rather abashed when he saw his Uncle and hung his head. But John Randel said nothing except "go to bed." "we'll finish this tomorrow" William feeling rather weak dragged himself upstairs and fell forward on the bed clothes shoes and all and slept. It was not untill the cookoo called two that Mr. Randel rose looking satisfied and went up stairs. The next morning John Randel did not go to his office as usual And William was some what surprised to find him

The Detroit Gazette

STORY JAN. 27 - PAGE 4 - 2^d SECTION

The BROKEN BILL  by Robert R. Stevens

— continued From Page 3 —

in the library. There was a cluster of papers at the desk and John Randel was busy figuring when his nephew ^{entered} he smiled and handed him a new leather wallet but told him not to open it until he reached Rocky reef a place some miles away. John Randel then told the Chopper to drive to the place mentioned.

The bewildered young Randel did as he was told wondering if his guardian was in one of his disappearing moods and wished to send him away. He wanted very much to open the wallet but he kept back his anxiousness and sat waiting as the big car flew along. Rocky Reef was no great distance for the powerful car and William Randel lost no time in opening the wallet on arriving. He first pulled out a typewriter letter and glanced it over he soon became interested the letter was from his uncle and it read continued on Page 8, column one —

AUTO SHOW Edition ^{The} Detroit Gazette Two Cents
JAN. SAT. 27. 2nd PAGE 5

AT THE DETROIT AUTO SHOW January 1917 ^{second Auto Show Edition}

Novelty At the Show -

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL
- CAR -
Detroit Auto Show

Studebaker Gold Car ~~~~~ Buy a Ford ~

HUDSON super - Six FINE!
No Better

- A - SAXON
SIX See the Latest

A CADILLAC EIGHT AT THE AUTO SHOW

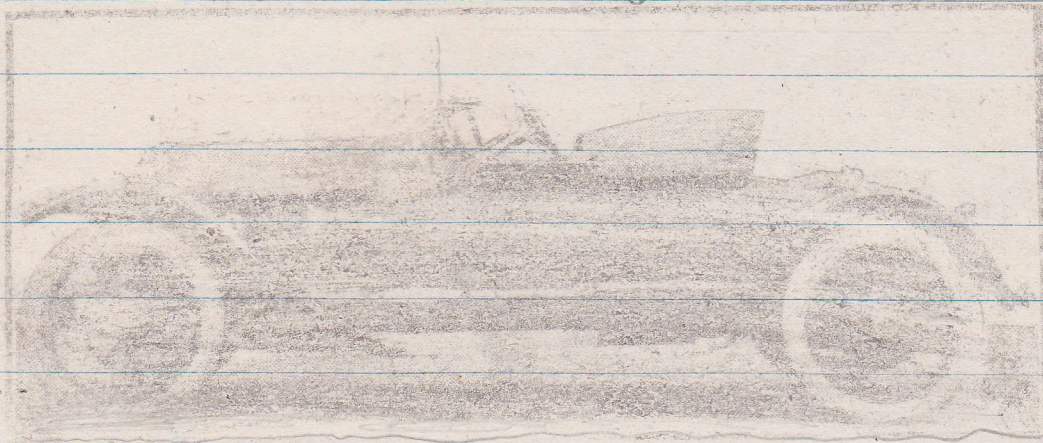

AUTO EDIT
SHOW 10M

The Detroit Gazette

~ PAGE 6 ~

Auto Show Today Admission 50¢

WORLD'S CHAMPION OF MOTOR CARS

~ "AND ALL THE WORLD LOVES A CHAMPION" ~

WINTON
Six
ON EXHIBIT

STUTZ ROADSTER -
- MODEL -

Buick
IS HERE

LIBERTY light
Six

Auto Show
Pictors
Continued on page 7

(New Sedan) Dodge Bros. Motor CAR "It Speaks For Itself"

IF IT IS RA...

AUTO Show Edition The Detroit Gazette 2nd copy No 22
 SAT. JAN. 27 PAGE 7

At The Auto Show continued —

U.S.
 MOTOR TRUCKS

"AS GOOD AS THEIR NAME"

I can carry -
 A Big -
 - LOAD

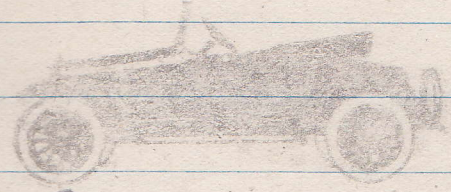

U.S.
 MOTOR TRUCKS

GO WITH THE Croud

see
 The Show

— Two Beauties FAB. TOLEDO —

ick
 HERE

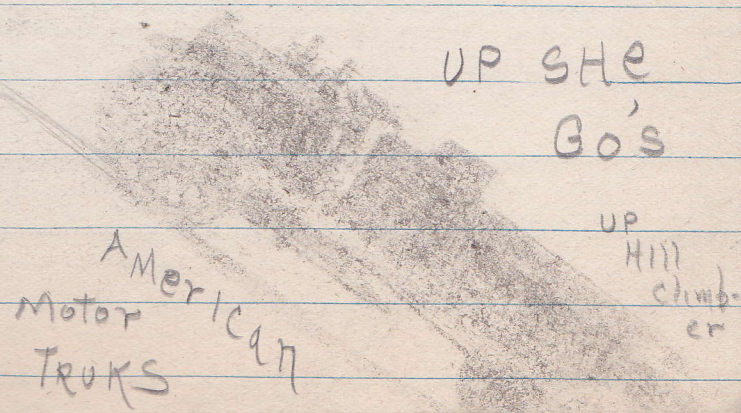

Willys Knight - - Overland Cars - - Light Six.

A Buick

IF IT IS RAINY (IT'S INCLOSED)

AMERICAN Motor TRUCKS

UP SHE Go's

UP Hill climber

WATCH THE
- CARS GO BY

Auto Show Edition The Detroit Gazette

SATURDAY JANUARY 27

PAGE 8-

DAWN

THEATRE

- OPENS TONIGHT -

See Upper Gratiots

Five Theatre

By Robert R. Stevens The BROKEN Bill CONTINUED FROM PAGE 7

Dear Nephew,

I fear that you have either been spoiled by your dear mother before her death or that you have drifted into the wrong company. I have experienced your same trouble and have a cure, as you are a Randel I am sure this cure will help you. This wallet contains one half of a one thousand column two dollar bill the other half is held by Mr. — That is your job, to find the holder and the other half one hundred thousand awaits you if you find it and a refined young lady. Come back at once and get particulars. Your loving uncle.

John Randel

Continued Next Week
Second Instalment
The SEARCH BEGINS -
Gazette JANUARY 1917

CHICAGO

Auto Show

- NOW ON -