The Three City boys on a hike - R. Donald

Georges Bug Show - Forestvill - RRS

Fred Norman of Forestwell

By Robert Randolph Stevens

APR 1 - 1916

"Extra! Extra! all about the big accident 3 cars run off elevated!

A boy of about 15 years was calling out
on a busy corner
of a large city.

"Extra! he called
again.

He sold papers
quite rapidly,
and soon his pile
was all gone and he ran to the stand for a few more of the Extras.

There had been an accident and the people wanted to know about it

and so the papers
sold rapidly. Fred
for this was the boys name, Fred Norman in full perhaps for

did not know

whether it was Fred Joe or Bill.

He had been called Fred by the old man who Fred called grandpa but for two weeks had been dead.

He had been killed
in one of the many accidents of a great city.

And Fred took to selling papers.

It was late
when Fred found his way into an old room
